

What is SCRIP/TRIP?

Tuition Reduction Incentive Program

What is TRIP (also called SCRIP) and how does it work?

TRIP enables parents to reduce their tuition by purchasing gift certificates - at no additional cost - for goods and services that they buy every day.

Parents buy the gift certificates at face value from TRIP in increments ranging from $5 to $100. As parents buy the certificates, a percentage of their purchase is credited to their family's TRIP account. The percentage varies depending on the business, but ranges from 2% to 20%. Twice a year, the accumulated credits in their TRIP account are applied to their tuition account.

A wide variety of businesses participate in TRIP. The gift certificates can be used like cash for goods and services that parents purchase regularly (groceries, gas, clothing, etc.). A complete list of participating businesses and the percentages of credit that they offer is available from the TRIP Committee.

For example, if a family normally spends $500 a month at D & W, they can purchase $500 in D & W gift certificates from TRIP and receive a 4% TRIP credit ($20). Over a year, they would accumulate $240 in TRIP credits which could be deducted directly from their tuition.

Who can participate?

Anyone can participate in TRIP and help reduce a family's tuition! Grandparents, aunts and uncles, church members, and friends can enroll in TRIP and designate their credits to go to a specific family's tuition account.
